Dear Mr. Taylor,

Thank you for taking time from your busy campaign schedule to interview with the Texas Right to Life Political Action Committee (TRTLPAC). The purpose of TRTLPAC is to endorse and support candidates for public office who are committed to restoring the sanctity of innocent human life. Through sharing information and dialogue with you, we hope to have established and strengthened your understanding of the many Right to Life issues.

TRTLPAC does not take lightly the responsibility to you, the candidate, your voters, or to the members of Texas Right to Life. Therefore, the PAC diligently reviewed each questionnaire, interview report, and proven Pro-Life leadership, and voting record, where applicable.

After reviewing your candidate questionnaire and our interview notes, the Texas Right to Life Political Action Committee determined that you share our Pro-Life convictions. However, due to the number of Pro-Life candidates in the race, the PAC has decided not to endorse any candidates in the primary. Our voter guide and website will indicate that you meet our rigid criteria to be certified as a Pro-Life candidate. Should there be a runoff election, the PAC may revisit its decision at that time. Subsequently, the PAC will notify all candidates in general election races of our involvement.

Regardless of the outcome of your election, Texas Right to Life PAC welcomes any opportunity to work with you and is prepared to assist you in the development and support of public policy that defends, protects and sustains Pro-Life initiatives.

Sincerely,

Adam Black
Political Director
Texas Right to Life
